WINTER TROUT FISHING SEASON OPENS IN GROS MORNE NATIONAL PARK ON FEBRUARY 1, 2018

ROCKY HARBOUR, NL, January 29, 2018 – The winter trout fishing season in Gros Morne National Park will open on February 1st, 2018. The season will run until April 15th, 2018.

Permits for winter fishing can be picked up at the Discovery Centre, Woody Point; the Parks Canada Administration Building, Rocky Harbour; the Warden Office, Cow Head; and the following local businesses: Coyley's, Wiltondale; Gros Morne Cabins, Rocky Harbour; and Parkway Irving, Rocky Harbour. There is no charge for fishing permits, however, fishers must have a Gros Morne National Park Pass or Parks Canada Discovery Pass to receive a permit.

Please note the following waters in Gros Morne National Park remain closed to fishing:

- Trout River, Trout River Pond, and their tributaries;
- All waters of the Western Brook drainage basin, including Western Brook, Western Brook Pond, and Stag Brook; and
- Ten Mile Feeder between Ten Mile Pond and Deer Arm Pond.

Visitor safety is one of Parks Canada's top priorities. Parks Canada reminds people who are ice fishing to be safe and aware of changing conditions and potential hazards.
